Foreword

May these pages bring to you in later years memories of weary hours of work — happy hours of play — hours of service to Northeastern. Though the knowledge gathered in these hours may be forgotten or put aside, we shall never forget what has been especially stressed and which is most important for future success and a happy life — what price the worth of friendship.

To

ALBERT EDWARD WHITTAKER AND ALFRED D'ALESSANDRO

Two men whose advice and counsel have shown us the true spirit of co-operation through these four years, we, the Class of 1929, do dedicate this volume.

NEWS BANQUET

The annual banquet of the News occurred on Tuesday, April 17, 1928, at the University Club. George A. Frye, 1929 E, was elected Editor-in-Chief, and Roger H. Smith, Associate Editor, for the year 1928-29. Benjamin M. Ellison, 1928 B.A., the retiring Editor-in-Chief, was the toastmaster at this gathering of over fifty-five men, representing all departments on the News. Mr. Trentwell M. White, English Director in the Dedham Public Schools, and author of boys' stories, was the guest speaker. His subject was "More Copy".

The entire staff showed its appreciation of Mr. Marston's distinguished work by presenting him with a cigarette lighter. Following this presentation, quills were awarded to the staff members. For the first time the News departed from its usual custom of presenting the coveted News Quills only to its members, when it awarded them to Professor Estes, Director of Publications, and Mr. Marston, Faculty Adviser.

MUSICAL COMEDY BANQUET

On Wednesday, April 25, 1928, the entire personnel of the musical comedy, "Yes, Yes, Siam", assembled for a banquet at the University Club. This dinner was held to celebrate the successful presentation of Northeastern's fourth musical comedy, reviewed in the Boston press as "the highest grade college show of the season". John V. Baketel, 1929 B.A., of Methuen, toastmaster of the evening, introduced as the principal speaker, Professor Holley S. Winkfield, to whom much credit was due for providing the musical development of the show.

JUNIOR PROM

Friday evening, April 27, 1928, Hotel Statler was the scene of one of the keenly anticipated social events of the school year, the Engineering School Junior Promenade. About two hundred and fifty couples danced to the music of "Bill" Boyle's Orchestra in the Imperial Ball Room. At midnight, following the favor dance and the grand march, supper was served in the Georgian Room. The program opened at nine o'clock, and Home Sweet Home was not played until four on Saturday morning. The guests of honor were Dean and Mrs. Carl S. Ell, Professor and Mrs. Albert E. Whittaker, and Professor Alfred J. Ferretti.

One hundred and fifty couples attended the Annual Junior Prom of Northeastern's School of Business Administration at Longwood Towers, on Friday evening May 11, 1928. The Harvardians played for dancing from nine until three o'clock. A pleasing innovation introduced by the 1929 committee, of which James J. Houlahan was chairman, was the midnight supper in the dining hall. Favors, consisting of sterling silver bracelets and cigarette lighters, engraved with the university seal, for ladies and gentlemen respectively were presented during the promenade which was led by President and Mrs. Frank Palmer Speare, Dean and Mrs. Carl Stephens Ell, Professor and Mrs. Turner Flowers Garner, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D'Alessandro.

DEAN'S LIST DINNER

Sixty-three upperclassmen, who were on the Dean's List of honor students for the majority of the terms during the year, were guests at a dinner held at the University Club on Saturday evening, May 12, 1928. A scholarship of $100 was awarded to John Swift of Roslindale, 1930 E, by Dean Carl S. Ell, toastmaster, for having attained the highest scholastic grade of any student in the University. It was the first time such a dinner has been held, and also the first time the scholarship was awarded, although both events will now become a yearly feature of the University program. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Payson Smith, Commissioner of Education, who gave an engaging discourse on "The Factors of a Successful Life". Chamber music was enjoyed during the dinner.

HONORARY SOCIETIES

The Sigma Delta Epsilon, honorary society of the School of Business Administration, held its annual banquet on Monday evening, May 14, 1928, at the University Club. Six newly elected members were initiated. The men so honored by the society were all Juniors, who had attained distinction both in the academic and the social life of the University. Mr. Havice, Faculty Adviser, and Benjamin M. Ellison, retiring president, were the after dinner speakers. After the banquet the entire society assembled at the Shubert Theatre to enjoy Mitzi in "The Madcap".

The Northeastern Senate, honorary society of the Engineering School, gave a farewell banquet to its graduating members at the University Club, on Friday evening, June 15, 1928. Professor Stanley G. Estes, guest and speaker of the evening, talked on "The Inquiring Mind".

SOPHOMORE DANCES

The State Suite of the Copley Plaza Hotel was the scene of an enjoyable dance on Friday evening, May 18, 1928. The members of the B. A. Sophomore Class and their friends made merry to the music of Joe Falk's band. The room was decorated with Northeastern and class colors which contributed admirably to the atmosphere of the place. Time slipped by with exasperating celerity, and at one o'clock the affair was brought to a close. Patrons of the dance were: President and Mrs. Frank Palmer Speare, Professor and Mrs. Turner Flowers Garner, Professor and Mrs. John B. Pugsley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Kenney, and Mr. and Mrs. Gaines Thomson Cartinhour.

The annual Sophomore Hop, Division B, was held on Friday evening, May 25, 1928, at Whitney Hall, Brookline. It was declared one of the liveliest and best dances of the year. Dancing started shortly after eight o'clock and the gayety did not cease until one o'clock. Excellent music was furnished by Dick Chapple's Orchestra. The class and school spirit were outstanding and aided immensely in bringing about the essential sociability of such a function. The patrons were Professor Frederick W. Holmes, Professor Holley S. Winkfield, and Mr. William T. Alexander.

TRACK BANQUET

Northeastern terminated its track season, finishing seventh among twenty-three colleges represented in the New England Intercollegiates, on Saturday, May 12, 1928. After the meet, the Huskies were feted at the University Club. Captain Tatton was toastmaster and introduced Dean Carl S. Ell, who paid tribute to the team, the coaches and the faculty, for their support of track during the past year. Coaches Zeller and Parsons also expressed their appreciation of the co-operation that prevailed during the season, and bestowed especial praise upon the men who had placed in the New Englands. Stanley Earle, who a few hours before had placed third in the N. E. I. C. A. A. quarter-mile, was elected captain, and Lambert F. Larson was elected manager. At the close of the evening letters were awarded by Professor Winthrop E. Nightingale to nineteen athletes and class numerals to eighteen.

BASEBALL BANQUET

The members of the Northeastern baseball team gathered at the University Club for their annual banquet on Saturday evening, June 2, 1928. Neil Mahoney, veteran Husky backstop for the past three years, received the highest tribute any athlete can receive when he was acclaimed captain for the 1928-1929 baseball season. Thirteen members were awarded their insignia, and were also given gold baseball bats by Mr. H. Bradlee Fenno. T. Llewellyn Schofield, 1929 E, of Weston, was appointed manager, to succeed Harry Kempanen of Fitchburg, who was toastmaster for the evening.

ANNUAL OUTING

For the first time, the School of BusinessAdministration joined the School of Engineering in Northeastern's Eighteenth Annual Field Day, held at Riverside, Newton, on Saturday, June 9, 1928. The students arrived in their own cars or by special train in time to take part in the parade of alumni and students to the recreation grounds—an annual feature of the outing. The parade was followed by the presentation of the senior class banners to the freshmen. Sports were featured during the day, and dancing and canoeing in the evening served to round out a very enjoyable program.

FRESHMAN RECEPTION

On Friday, September 21, 1928, over two hundred freshmen and faculty gathered in Bates Hall to enjoy the reception tendered the freshmen by the Student Union. "Husky" was introduced to the yearlings and received his share of cheers and applause.

Six members of the class of 1932 furnished music during the evening. For additional attractions a company of professional entertainers was on hand, and afterwards a movie was enjoyed by those present.

The reception was brought to an end after Dean Ell and other members of the faculty made short speeches of welcome and advice to the newcomers.

INTERCLASS BASEBALL

The class of 1929 won the interclass baseball annual championship, the final game being between the senior and sophomore teams.

Mr. H. Bradlee Fenno has donated to the winning team a silver cup to be a perpetual trophy for winners of these series. Members of the winning team were also given their numerals.

DIVISION A RUSH

Northeastern sophomores won the fall classic at the Fens on October 2, by successfully defending the "flag" atop the greased pole. There were at least two freshmen for each sophomore, but the "cagey" second-year men maintained a successful defense for the full time limit of three minutes. The sophomores finally amassed 180 points against their opponents' 125.

Freshman hopes were catapulted high into the air when the freshman team ran away with the football game 14 to 6. Flumer, Green, and Howe starred for the yearlings, while Gilbert, Krasnow, and Zing were the main bearings of the sophomore machine. The Sophomores, however, were victors in the other events of the afternoon, a five-man six-legged race, and an obstacle race.

Freshmen continued to wear red caps, and otherwise remained in durance vile.

SENIOR DANCE

Northeastern's Senior Dance was held on October 5, 1928, at the Tent ballroom on Huntington Avenue. This was the first red-letter day on Northeastern's 1928-1929 social calendar. Representatives of all classes, and of alumni, were among the two hundred couples present at this semi-formal event. Morey Pearl's well-known orchestra provided the music.

Professor and Mrs. H. W. Melvin, Professor and Mrs. S. G. Estes, and Professor and Mrs. A. E. Whittaker were present as guests of the class of 1929.

ALUMNI BANQUETS

Alumni of the Engineering School held their annual banquet at the University Club, on October 25, 1928. The Hon. William S. Youngman, speaker of the evening, chose for his subject, "The Issue of the Present Campaign." Frank L. Flood, 1922, retiring president of the association, acted as toastmaster of the evening. It was decided at this meeting to consolidate with the B. A. alumni group.

B. A. Alumni held a get-together on November 1, 1928. The group had dinner at the Palais D'Or, and rounded out the evening by attending "The Connecticut Yankee", at the Majestic Theatre.

The Northeastern University Alumni Club of New York held its annual meeting at the Hotel Breslin, Broadway, New York City, on October 26, 1928. President Sherman O. Maxwell, 1925 E, was toastmaster. Professor Joseph Spear, and Professor John B. Pugsley were present as guests.

SOCCER BANQUET

The second annual banquet of the Northeastern soccer team was held at the University Club on November 27, 1928. Professor Edward S. Parsons was master of ceremonies. Vice-President Carl S. Ell, Professor Turner F. Garner, and Professor John B. Puglsey were speakers of the evening. Each speaker commended the undefeated team upon its successful season.

Professor Winthrop E. Nightingale, chairman of the Faculty Committee on Athletics, announced the winners of the Varsity "N", and numerals.

Fred E. Hess, 1930 E, was elected captain of the team for the coming season, and Russell E. Cobb was chosen manager.

Northeastern's first undefeated Varsity team was given special recognition in the form of gold soccer ball watch charms.

SENATE ALUMNI BANQUET

The University Club was the scene of the annual Senate Alumni Banquet, on December 13, 1928. James H. Kinghorn, 1929 E, President of the Senate, acted as toastmaster.

Professor Edgar McNaughton, of Tufts College, was the guest speaker of the evening. Professor Turner F. Garner, Director of Education, and Ralph L. Atkinson, 1921, were other speakers.

MIDWINTER CONCERT

Northeastern's four Division B musical clubs united in their annual midwinter concert on January 11, 1929, at Paul Revere Hall in the Mechanics Building. The program was diversified and pleasing, ranging from the barbaric harmonies of Tschaikowsky's "Marche Slave", to the rippling melody of Weidt's "Sunny Smile". The Bacchanalians gathered the most applause for their peppy renditions. The clubs taking part were the Banjo Club, the Concert Orchestra, the Bacchanalians, and the Glee Club. After the concert dancing was in order until twelve.

The Senate

FROM the date of its establishment, May 3, 1921, until the present, The Senate, Honorary Society of the School of Engineering, has represented the highest honor attainable by an undergraduate in the School. The basic requirement of membership is high scholarship, but quality of character, and interest in the welfare of others are also considered. A gold charm in the form of a scroll, bearing the name of the society on its face and suitably engraved on the back, is the insignia of the Senate.

Twice a year the names of upperclassmen scholastically eligible for The Senate are submitted to the Society by the faculty. These are voted upon by the active members of the Senate and only those men are elected who, in the eyes of their fellows, combine high scholastic achievement with personal integrity and the ability to co-operate with others.

There are at present 142 alumni members, the majority of whom retain an active interest in the undergraduate chapter. An Annual Senate Alumni Banquet is held in mid-winter for the purpose of enabling alumni and undergraduates to become better acquainted. The active chapter also sponsors frequent meetings of a social and educational nature throughout the school year, culminating in the Farewell Dinner to the Seniors in June.

It is traditional at Northeastern that membership in the Senate can be held only by upperclassmen who have demonstrated outstanding ability in several phases of undergraduate life. The Society has thus served to promote all-round development with emphasis upon scholarship and character.

ELECTION to Sigma Delta Epsilon, the honorary society of the School of Business Administration, is the highest honor that can be conferred upon a student in this school. Those who are eligible for election are considered upon the basis of sound scholarship, personal character, and University activities. The men privileged to wear the gold key of the society are notable for their general leadership in undergraduate life. Carrying high standards into their business and professional careers, Sigma Delta Epsilon alumni are to be found in eminent places among the younger graduates.

While this honor group functions quietly, its dignified influence lends a definite tone to the school. By reason of its rigid requirements, the active membership is never large. Usually about six men are elected each year. Meetings are held at least once a month; an annual prize is awarded to a freshman most worthy on the basis of scholarship, character and activities; and several times each year the alumni meet with the undergraduates for a social evening.

The gold key of the society is rhombic in design with the symbolism and the Greek letters Sigma Delta Epsilon engraved upon its face.

THE University Student Council is primarily a body endowed with the power to govern student activities. The Council organized this year early in the fall under its two presidents, and has worked very efficiently.

The Freshman-Sophomore relationships have been handled in a very satisfactory manner this year by both councils. The Division A Group inaugurated the precedent of manual labor for recalcitrant freshmen.

In addition to the large amount of work entailed in interclass relationships, the Council has considered many matters of policy and has made many important decisions. The Council has gradually increased its scope of activities and tends more and more to make itself felt as an aggressive and positive factor in student activities.

THE Interfraternity Council is a representative group governing interfraternity relationships. It is composed of two members from each of the twelve fraternities of the Engineering and Business Administration Schools. The Council is now in its third year, and the friendly spirit and harmony existing between the fraternities is largely due to the efforts of this organization.

The Council is advised by Professor Spear and its decisions are reviewed and checked by the Faculty Committee on Fraternities composed of the faculty advisers of the several fraternities.

THE Northeastern Student Union has enlarged its program so that it serves in many ways the entire student body. Its threefold activities—social, service, and spiritual—have extended themselves into all branches of student life.

One of the Union's most notable achievements is the weekly chapel service. Many eminent preachers serve as chapel speakers.

In its noon-hour programs, the Union has sponsored a variety of educational and entertaining features including popular lectures, movies, and forums.

Through its Service and Welfare department letters, copies of the News, flowers, and fruit have been sent to ill students; moreover, visits have often been made. The Lost and Found department has also been of great service. Over twelve hundred articles have been returned during the year.

The Reading and Writing Room is comfortably appointed for the use of all students. Lounging chairs, study tables, writing desks, magazines and newspapers are to be found in this room. "Husky" stationery, pens and ink are always available.

The social activities have included several large receptions and a number of smaller social programs.

Through its diversified intercollegiate contact the Union has given dignified publicity to the University. Delegates were sent to a large number of student conferences throughout the year.

THE Northeastern University Student Branch, American Institute of Electrical Engineers completed a very successful year. Several speakers of prominence and experts in their respective fields spoke during the year. Among these were Doctor Kennelly of Harvard, Professor C. L. Dawes of Harvard, Professor Lampson of the General Radio Company, and Mr. Davis, Superintendent of the Simplex Wire and Cable Company. A very instructive excursion was taken through the works and high tension laboratory of this company.

The enrollment this year was very large. Northeastern tied for second place with University of California with an enrollment of 78 student members. There are 99 branches in the United States.

The Handbook is published annually by the Northeastern Student Union, and is issued to students at the beginning of the college year. The Track Season

Captain Morang

THE Northeastern track team shaped up as one of the best in New England this year. The Huskies went through an indoor season undefeated, having got by their old rival Bates for the first time in five years, and again overwhelmed Worcester Tech. The prospects for the outdoor season were exceedingly bright with dual meets with Tufts, April 20, at home; Springfield College, at Springfield, May 4; Colby, at Waterville, May 11; the Eastern Intercollegiates, at Worcester, May 18; and the New England Intercollegiates, at M. I. T., May 24 and 25.

The handicap meet in the fall was marked by some good performances, especially by newcomers from the freshman class who were destined to make good later in the year. The team received a blow early in the year when Stanley Earle, '29, captain-elect, resigned, and the letter men later chose Almon Morang, a junior, as his successor.

Morang is the best high jumper the Huskies ever had, and holds the indoor and outdoor college records, both of which he improved this year.

A summary of the winter's activities is interesting in showing the strides that the Husky runners have taken the past year. The Prout Memorial games were marked by a Northeastern relay victory over Massachusetts Aggies by a lap, with Francis Shea, Red Thompson, Wilrose Hanson and Charles Thompson, running in that order in the mile event. In this meet, Francis Powers placed third in the hurdles for the N. E. A. A. A. U. championship to the world's record-holders, Monty Wells and John Collier. Captain Morang tied for first in the N. E. A. A. A. U. high jump at a new college record height, 6 feet, 1 1-8 inches. James McCrudden, freshman captain, was second in a handicap 600.

Then came the B. A. A. meet with George Martin pole vaulting 12 feet to a new college record, although not placing, and the relay team defeating Bates by a half-lap and Worcester Tech by more than that distance in a three-cornered relay. The college record in the mile relay was lowered below the figure of the Prout effort to 3:33 1-5. Powers was again a finalist in the hurdles in fast company.

A preliminary meet that was to aid the Huskies in preparing for the dual meets was the Y. M. C. A. open meet which really opened the season. The Huskies monopolized the honors. The contest was marked by Jack Morley's comeback as a high jumper. He cleared six feet. Charles Thompson started his assault on Earle's 600-yard record in this meet also.

The Millrose games in New York saw the Husky relay four meet its only defeat of the season by Fordham. But the Huskies outlegged Manhattan and St. John's College of Brooklyn. The N. E. A. A. A. U. championship events at Mechanics Building attracted several Northeastern entries. Red Thompson placed second to Sam Martin, B. A. A. star, in the 1000 and Charlie Thompson was second to Frankie Burns, also of the B. A. A., in the 600, setting a new college record of 1:18 2-5. Powers was a finalist in the dash.

CAULDRON

Northeastern's greatest achievement indoors was beating Bates at Lewiston on a dirt track, after training on boards all winter, 45-41. Behind in the next to the last event, Northeastern relay team ran a record-breaking race for the distance and gave N. U. a victory in the meet. A number of records fell in this meet, which was marked by gruelling competition. Joseph Falt and William Repetto, in the dash, and Roy Rymph, in the shotput, were other Husky record-breakers.

Northeastern found Worcester Tech an easy opponent in a dual meet at home which ended the indoor season. The Huskies captured all but two firsts and all but two seconds. The meet was featured by the 600-yard run by Charles Thompson, the shotputting of Rymph, the 300 by Shea, with one shoe off, and the flashy running of Fischer in the mile and 1000. Other Huskies could have performed more brilliantly if they had been pushed. The Huskies won, 58 1-2 to 18 1-2, in their meet with Worcester, incidentally.

An undefeated outdoor season up to the New Englands was predicted, and the Huskies were favored to do better than ever in the New Englands. The Eastern crown was worn the past year by Northeastern and shared by Northeastern and Union the previous year. The coaches certainly deserve credit for the way they developed material this year.

The Baseball Season

NORTHEASTERN baseball team, with a trio of four-year veterans, Captain Neil Mahoney, Raymond Richardson and Perry Ranney, faced the season with excellent prospects. The outlook was discouraging at first, as the team had lost a number of stars of the 1928 season, including Captain Clifford Freeland, ex-Captain Daniel Pender, Lawrence Ranney, Leo Crowley and Dominic Meo, all letter men.

The chief problem which Coach Bond faced was to find a right-handed pitcher, two infielders and two outfielders, in addition to bolstering his batting order. The Huskies had strength in the pitching department as far as southpaws go, with Harold Somerville, ace of 1926 and '27, Richardson, a mainstay last season, and George Whittum, relief pitcher a year ago. The Huskies possessed strength also in the catching department with Captain Mahoney, one of the best college catchers in the East, and a capable understudy, William Symancyk.

First base was a problem, but Coach Bond early found a way of solving it by using Richardson at this position when not pitching. Games in which Richardson pitched were featured by Captain Mahoney at first and Symancyk behind the bat. The competition for infield positions was keen, and the veterans, Nutter and Goodwin, were forced to hustle to keep several of the newcomers from the freshman and sophomore classes from taking away their jobs. The outfield was pretty well fixed with the veterans, Ranney and Edward Dempsey, but here again the season was featured by keen competition on the part of newcomers.

The schedule was one of the best in the university's baseball history, Dartmouth being a notable newcomer. The Maine trip was another feature, being more attractive than the Vermont trip which previously featured. The absence of Boston University, Back Bay rival of a number of years, was more than made up by the inclusion of strong nines, including Providence College, R. I. State, Maine, Middlebury, Bates, Colby and, of course, Tufts, which has become more and more a leading rival.

The baseball season was also featured by the attempt of Herbert Tiffany, soccer and basketball star, to win his third letter, a feat never before attained by a Husky athlete. Last year Larry Ranney was the only Husky who made two letters, in baseball and basketball. Bill Kobera, who graduated last year, Bill Raffone, Arthur Rae and Joseph Sylvester are recalled as the only other two-sports athletes in recent years.

LED by Captain Arlton Fletcher, the 1932 basketball quintet enjoyed a successful season, winning five games out of nine. Two games were lost by three points, Dean Academy at Franklin and Wentworth Institute at the Y. M. C. A. getting the decisions. Later in the season the Husky pups turned the tables on Wentworth in a fast game. The high light of the season was the run-away victory at Cambridge when the frosh defeated New Preparatory School 80-11. The 1932 squad should furnish several valuable replacements for varsity stars next season. The following members of the squad were awarded numerals: A. K. Fletcher, Captain, R. C. Christensen, E. F. Hintz, H. A. Schlier, A. N. Ransford, C. R. Scott, G. A. Fileman, J. Duksta, B. W. Phillips, S. B. Moseman, S. J. Piascik, R. B. Whitman.

CAULDRON

The Basketball Season

NORTHEASTERN enjoyed its best basketball season in history this year. Captain Joseph Placzek, '29, led the Huskies to nine victories in 16 games, which surpasses the record of 1927 of eight victories and nine defeats under the leadership of William Raffone, '27.

One of the chief reasons why Coach Rufus Bond's sixth season in charge of Northeastern basketball was more successful than previous seasons was the scoring punch provided by two sophomores, William Symancyk, who made his letter a year ago, and Herbert Tiffany, who was a newcomer on the court squad after distinguishing himself in soccer two seasons.

Both Tiffany and Symancyk scored more points than any previous Northeastern player during a season. In 1927 William Kobera, last year's captain, set a scoring record for the Huskies of 180 points. The present year saw Tiffany cage 246 points and Symancyk 182. These forwards were one of the leading pair of scorers of any team in the East. Tiffany finished sixth among the leading scorers of the East, and he was second to Edward Wineapple of Providence College in New England scoring. He led the Greater Boston college players, with his running mate runner-up.

The guarding of Captain Joseph Placzek and Attilio Arcardi, veterans of last year, was again of high calibre. Placzek particularly distinguished himself by his fine leadership and consistent play, and was valued so highly by his teammates that he was re-elected for the coming year. At center Howard Gregory, the only senior on the squad, was pushed early in the season by Willard Northrop, a sophomore, but reached his form of a year ago, and contributed a great deal to the team's success.

Orall Calderara, '30, and Gilbert MacDonald, '32, played in most of the games, proving to be valuable substitutes. Terrance Burak, Vernon O'Neill and Arlton Fletcher, freshman captain, as well as Homer Schlier, freshman high scoring forward, also saw action on the varsity.

The season opened against Providence College at home, December 8, the Huskies piling up a lead at the end of the half that was lost in the second half after the regular guards, Placzek and Arcardi, were put out on personal fouls. This showing in the opener augured well for the success of the Red and Black, for Providence had a veteran five which had one of the best records subsequently of any college in the East.

Clark won two victories over N. U. a year ago, but revenge was gained on December 12, at Worcester, and on January 5, at home, as the Huskies completely outplayed their rivals. Tiffany and Symancyk piled up many baskets. The annual game with the alumni proved to be one of the hardest games of the season, the alumni having Bill Raffone, Red Renker, Julius Janssen, Joe Sylvester, Art Rae and Larry Ranney on their side. The varsity won, 39-35. Harvard managed to defeat the Huskies at Cambridge, in the final December contest, by five points. The Huskies found the elongated Crimson center, Grayden Upton, a problem in the first half, and rallied too late in the game to win a victory.

Capt. Placzek

Mgr. Clark

At Durham, the Huskies defeated the strong University of New Hampshire team, 37-20, with Tiffany setting a scoring record for the Wildcats' gymnasium. At Worcester Tech the Huskies won a hard-fought game, 40-35, with Symancyk the scoring ace. Lowell Textile took advantage of the Huskies at Lowell to win, 30-28, the team being without Coach Bond for the first time in his coaching career on account of illness. The Huskies later avenged that defeat at home with a 45-28 victory.

The U. S. Coast Guard brought a smart-looking team to Boston, January 19, and for a time threatened to overcome the Huskies, but the tide turned into a rout eventually with N. U. on top, 39-17. Massachusetts Aggies were beaten by Northeastern for the first time in history in the next game on the home court, the score being, 32-17.

Tufts defeated N. U. at Medford by the greatest margin of any opponent this year. The Jumbos had their eyes on the basket that night, and although Tiffany outscored the Tufts ace, Fish Ellis, and Symancyk, too, gave Ellis a battle for scoring honors, the luck was not with N. U. R. I. State had a great series with Northeastern as usual. At Kingston, on the first game of the Southern trip, R. I. won, 38-34. It was the tenth straight victory for the Kingston five. Still undefeated, the Rhode Islanders came to Boston the following week, and had to play two overtime periods to win, 49-43. This game was the best played in the local gym all year and probably the best on a Boston court this winter also.

The second game of the Southern trip at Brooklyn Poly was a disappointment for N. U. The Huskies lost by six points, but the home team played a rough game that was characterized by incessant holding. The wind-up of the season was a landslide for Northeastern against the Norwich Cadets. The score, 50-15, indicates the scoring activity of the Huskies.

From 1000 to 1500 persons saw each of the home basketball games this year. Dancing featured after home games.

At the annual banquet at the Hotel Kenmore, Placzek was re-elected captain and Roger Eldridge, '30, was chosen manager. Letters were awarded to Placzek, Manager Clark, Arcardi, Gregory, Calderara, Tiffany, Symancyk, Northrop and MacDonald. Numerals were given Arthur Cripps, '31, and Eldridge. Dean Ell, Athletic Director Parsons, H. Bradlee Fenno, Prof. Garner, Prof. Puglsey and Prof. Melvin were among the speakers.

The Soccer Season

NORTHEASTERN'S soccer team of 1928 gained the distinction of being the University's first athletic team to go through its season without a defeat. Under the leadership of Warren A. "Rusty" Howard, the Huskies won their first seven games and tied the last one with Clark at Worcester. Howard was also captain in 1927, the first season soccer was a major sport, when the eleven scored seven victories in eight games, losing only to Springfield College.

The Huskies won most of their games in 1928 by a convincing margin. Four opponents, Dartmouth, Worcester Tech, Brown and Harvard, were whitewashed. No opponent scored more than once, and one of the opponent's goals, that made by M. I. T., was discredited as the Beavers forfeited the match to Northeastern when it became known that two of their players had been ineligible. And so the score of the M. I. T. match stands in the record book 1-0 in Northeastern's favor.

Coach Priestley

David Priestley, a member of the Boston Professional Soccer Team, coached the Huskies for the second season, but was unable to attend the matches; consequently Athletic Director Edward Parsons was on hand to do his bit at the games. Priestley began the season with a veteran group that included Captain Howard, Harold Burton, Herbert Tiffany and Lester Kershaw on the forward line; Fred Hess, Harold McGoff, Herman Bancroft and Augustus Masefield, halfbacks; Joseph Medeiros, Gordon Smethurst and Howard Foster, fullbacks; and Thomas Melia goal. The most talented freshman was Mario Franco who immediately won a place on the forward line, which was intact throughout the season. Malcolm Yates, Alfred Booker and Samuel Moseman were the only other first-year men who made the varsity squad, but several of the reserves of 1927 contributed a great deal to the success of the team. The reserves included Wallace Bazley, Russell Scammell, Stanley Wyrzywalski, John Norton, Linwood Stetson, Edwin Cobb, Ronald Veeder and John Duncan.

The season opened with Fitchburg Normal at home, September 29, each member of Northeastern's forward line scoring at least once and Burton and Howard twice to win a 7-1 victory. Full of confidence the Huskies journeyed to Hanover October 6 and surprised the Green by winning a 4-0 triumph. Against M. I. T. at Cambridge, October 10, the Huskies had trouble finding the goal with their shots and faced a rugged opposition from the Beavers who tallied the only goal of the contest. This score was later reversed.

Traveling to Worcester, October 13, Northeastern trounced an old rival, Worcester Tech, 4-0. Tiffany and Franco shared the scoring honors. Bridgewater Normal brought a scrappy team to Huntington Field, October 20, but the Huskies rallied in the closing minutes to win 4-1. Brown was defeated 2-0 at Providence, October 27, Tiffany and Burton tallying. Burton was the hero of the Harvard game at Soldiers Field, October 30, booting the only goal of the contest. And then came the windup against Clark at Worcester, November 3 on a muddy pitch which made a fast game impossible. The Huskies were favored by "Lady Luck" when a Clark player booted a goal for them, thus keeping the Red and Black slate clean of defeats.

Mgr. Blanchard

Northeastern scored 24 goals to opponents' 3 during the season. Three players, Burton, Tiffany and Franco shared scoring honors with five goals apiece. Captain Howard tallied four, seven less than the preceding season, while Kershaw, Bazley and Scammell added one apiece.

Fred Hess was elected to lead the team in 1929 and Russell Cobb succeeds Kendall Blanchard as manager. Letters were awarded to the following: Seniors, Captain Howard, Manager Blanchard, Smethurst, McGoff, Bancroft, Masefield and Burton; juniors, Captain-elect Hess, Bazley, Melia; sophomores, Tiffany, Kershaw, Medeiros and Scammell; freshmen, Franco and Booker. Numerals were awarded to the following: Manager-elect, Russell Cobb and Harry Burton, assistant manager, and Edwin Cobb. Prospects for next year are bright.

The season's record follows:

Northeastern	7	Fitchburg Normal	1
Northeastern	4	Dartmouth	0
Northeastern	1	M. I. T.	0
Northeastern	4	W. P. I.	0
Northeastern	4	Bridgewater Normal	1
Northeastern	2	Brown	0
Northeastern	1	Harvard	0
Northeastern	1	Clark	1
Total	24		3

April

Monday	1	"And So to Bed". —April Fool!

ODE TO THE Y. M. C. A. SPA

I know a little History;
  Some Verses, too, by heart;
I know a little Science:
  I know a little Art

I know a little Latin;
  I know a little Greek;
He runs a little restaurant;
  I go there every week.

CAULDRON

Jokes

Hear Ye,—Hear Ye.
What Gipsy Smith is to religion—I am to literature.

HAROLD WESLEY MELVIN

A Scotchman was seen walking down the street—naked.
"Where are you going", said a friend of his.
"To a strip poker party!"

Freshman ordering chicken croquettes—"one order of chicken quartets, please."

Woman writing to her lawyer—"When will my suit be pulled off?"

Gentlemen prefer blonds, but, thank God, all men are not gentlemen.

Prof. Bruce walks four miles to a football game but finds fence too high to climb and walks back.

VISITOR: "What a charming baby, and how it does resemble your husband."
HOSTESS: "Gracious, you alarm me; we adopted this baby."

KENDALL: "You always get a kick out of a kiss."
PROF. CAPONE: "Try kissing your mother-in-law."

STORY: "I didn't know your girl was Scotch."
STEEVES: "She isn't. What made you think so?"
STORY: "Well I heard she doesn't put on perfume on windy days."

OVERHEARD ON HUNTINGTON AVENUE

TRAFFIC OFFICER (reproachfully): "Young lady, do you know anything about the traffic laws of this city?"
YOUNG THING: "Yes, a little. Can I help you?"

PROFESSOR WHITE: "The man who gives in when he is wrong, is a wise man, but the man who gives in when he is right is—"
MURPHY: "Married—"

CO-OP STUDENT APPLYING FOR A CO-OP JOB: "Please, sir, I've called to see if you can give me a job?"
CO-OPERATOR: "But I do nearly all the work myself—"
STUDENT: "That suits me, sir—"

CAULDRON

HEARD ON THE WORCESTER ROAD

Where do our parents learn about all these terrible places and things they say we must avoid?

Do you enjoy travelling or weren't you nervy enough to ask for rides?

Freshman (hiring room on St. Botolph Street): "What is the rent of this room, including the use of the piano?"

Landlady: "Well, perhaps, you'd be so good as to play me something first."

THE APEX OF INDISCRETION

1. Trying to find a restaurant on our campus.
2. Telling "Trent" White about a new book he has already read. This man reads in his sleep.
3. Trying out for a chorus girl's part in "Top O' The World."
4. Studying.
5. Not studying.

Oliva (in a tone of intelligence): "Prof. White, could you tell me the correct way to pronounce the two syllables in the word 'it'?"

White (in a tone of disgust): "You just be careful, and for your own sake, stay inside.

A FEW LAW QUOTATIONS AS USED BY PROF. PORTER

"As a matter of fact, the court didn't know what she was."

"Now in the case of Bully Pitt vs. Joe Spriggs."

"What is that going on, I mean, in back of the room. Is anyone lighting matches."

We Often Wonder:

If Professor Garner should "stake his head" and should lose the wager, would he then be able to say "Min".

Why does not Professor Bruce use Noonan's and why does he always stroke his bare head? Could it be that he wishes to keep his curly locks in place?

Will Professor Melvin ever make a grammatical error?

Is Professor White seeking atmosphere for a new book, when he lunches in the Symphony Restaurant or does he merely like the excellent food?

Professor Melvin, the Great: "Who is Arthur Machen?"

Englisher: "I don't know her name."

BILL WHITE: "Hey fellows."
McGUIRE: "What's the matter with you?"
POP BRUCE: "What does the book say?"
WILLIAMSON: "Let's figure it out in gadgets and widgets."
ALVORD: "I am going to tell you a story."
GABINE: "I warn you, I have no secrets, you will have the whole book for the test."
BAKER: "Assuming that for example."
POP STRAHAN: "Organic is not a memory course?"
GARNER: "Great Scott men! Start thinking."
CAPONE: "I don't like exams any more than you do."
ZELLER: "Now, men er-r, take this case of er-r."
T. M. WHITE: "Now I personally think."
JOE COOLIDGE: "That cost too much."
GABBY: "I would be the least person."
GRAMMY: "For God's sake why don't you fellows pay attention."
D'ALESSANDRO: "If you don't watch 'owit', I'll put you 'owit'."
PORTER: "Well, let's turn this case around."
MARSTON: "Are you a member of the news staff?"

"YOKES, YOKES, and more YOKES," said the Hen, laughingly.

Cronies

"Sammy" & Band

The following little mess of figures of speech flowed from the lips of two N. U. freshmen while attending a smoker at Sigma Phi Alpha Fraternity House.

FRESH EGG: "Have you heard the Talkies?"

BAD EGG: "You mean the Squawkies?"

FRESH EGG: "Yeah, the Chinema."

BAD EGG: "The Raucous Tintypes?"

FRESH EGG (gone bad): "The Guttural Growling Gasping Grating Grumbling Grunting Gramophonic Galloping Tintypes."

BAD EGG: "Yeah, I heard 'em."

A GENIUS IN OUR ELECTRICAL LAB

One of the Edison family, J——, on the back row of seats, was dozing. When Professor Smith spied him he suddenly said:

"J——,"

"Yes, Professor," was the startled answer.

"What is electricity?"

After a rather painful pause, the somewhat confused student replied: "I did know, Professor, but I forgot."

"Young gentlemen," said Pop to the class, "what a tragedy— Here is the only man who ever knew what electricity is, and he has forgotten."

TRENTWELL'S YOKES

During the Senior Class in Letter Writing Professor White directed his aim toward a letter that was written by a young gay thing, who each week reads that "awful" magazine named Liberty. Trent: "This letter is similar to the type received by Lydia Pinkham, the dear thing. 'After taking twelve bottles of your Remedy, I feel like two women'."

Discussing the wealth a certain individual happened to possess, Trent endeavored to become socialistic in his description:

"That man owned more money than an Ass can haul down hill backwards. In fact, one could never say this unfortunate individual was pauper-stricken."

POSTMAN (asking a fraternity to buy a ticket to the Postmans' Ball): "I've come to ask you if you'll subscribe to this deserving charity."

FRATERNITY TREASURER: "Certainly, I'll give you this check now."

POSTMAN: "But, it isn't signed."

TREASURER: "I know. I wish to remain anonymous—"

"Whey—" screamed the farmer boy, drinking a Holstein of beer.

"I dairy to curdle up close to me."

"I cud," said the milkmaid, "but I'm not that kine of a girl."

CAULDRON

THE ART OF DIGGING

TRENT: "What would you do if a frivolous and beautiful young lady, covered with diamonds and stunning clothes, ran up to you and screamed, 'I am hungry. Oh! so hungry!' I ask you all what would you do?"

STUDE: "Direct her to the nearest restaurant."

TRENT: "Yes, and then she would say, 'Oh! I never thought of that'."

PROF. CAPONE: "What are the advantages of compensation insurance, MacLeod?"

MACLEOD: "Blah—Blah—Blah— etc., etc., etc. (Five minutes of this, that and everything) but not much of anything."

PROF. CAPONE: "Yes, and what is the answer?"

Kendall's definition of "LOVE"

Love—That which brings Heaven down to earth and yet raises Hell.

FROSH: "A penny for your thoughts."

SENIOR: "What do you think I am, a slot machine?"

Acknowledgment

The engraver and the printer have the last of the copy. The Cauldron Board brings to a close months of painstaking work. We present the result for the approval of the student body — the most recent volume of Northeastern history.

We wish here to make acknowledgment to those who have given special assistance to the staff in the preparation of the book: to Mr. Edward R. Place for furnishing the athletic write-ups, to Mr. Curtis E. Goodwin for contributions to the college year, to Mr. Harry Shuman for assisting in the composition of the snapshot pages, and to Miss Louise Locke for her co-operation throughout the year and for typing much of the manuscript.
